of the
Illinois Junior Academy of Science, Incorporated

ARTICLE I. DUTIES AND TERMS OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. PRESIDENT

The President shall have served as a Region Officer and/or as a State Officer for a minimum of four years prior to assuming the office of President-elect.

The President shall take office on those years ending in even numbers and serve for two school years. If a vacancy occurs in the Office of President, the President-elect shall succeed to the office to complete the unexpired term.

The President shall preside at all meetings except those called by a Committee Chairperson or the Student President.

The President shall authorize the Treasurer to pay bills of budgeted items for the amount budgeted and shall require that contractual agreements are made for all proposed expenditures involving commercial concerns before authorization to proceed is granted.

The President shall abide by the decision of the Board of Directors in matters pertaining to budget.

The President shall appoint, with the approval of the Board of Directors, all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees.

The President shall direct the activities of the Illinois Junior Academy State Exposition and shall serve when required as liaison person between officials of the Illinois Junior Academy and the officials of the host institution.

The President shall be responsible for the coordination and dissemination of news releases on special and general aspects of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science functions.

The President shall be responsible for the coordination and direction of all materials made available to radio, television, newspapers, and other news media for broadcast and publication regarding the Illinois Junior Academy activities at the state level, after consultation with the executive board as needed.

The President may assist the officers of the regions and shall direct the distribution of pertinent information to the region officers.

The President has the power to veto over any proposal or activity that is considered detrimental to the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, Incorporated.

SECTION 2. PRESIDENT-ELECT

The President-elect shall have served as a Region Officer and/or as a State Officer for a minimum of three years prior to assuming the position of President-elect.

The President-elect shall take office on those years ending in even numbers and shall serve in that capacity for two years before succeeding to the office of President.

The President-elect shall serve as President for two years, following the term as President-elect.

The President-elect shall assist the President in whatever capacity is required and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees.

The President-elect shall coordinate the procedures for the nomination and election of Honorary IJAS members.

The President-elect shall compile, maintain, and distribute contact information of all related personnel.

If a vacancy occurs in the office of President-elect, the Board of Directors may then elect a qualified individual member to complete the unexpired term. If the vacancy occurs due to the succession of the President-elect to the position of President, then the replacement President-elect shall complete the unexpired term, and then serve as President-elect for a regular two (2) year term before assuming the office of President.

The President-elect will conduct any referendum called for to override a veto by the President. Any Corporate Officer or Region Chairperson may request that an override referendum be conducted. The Board of Directors will vote on the referendum. A two-thirds majority (13) in favor of the override by the Board of Directors (19) will be necessary to override the veto.

SECTION 3. SECRETARY

The Secretary shall be elected for a two-year (2) term and may succeed himself or herself in office. Election of the Secretary shall take place on those years ending in an odd number.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all of the meetings of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science called by the President. Copies of these minutes shall be made for all members of the Board of Directors.

The Secretary shall consult with the President in matters pertaining to duties concerning correspondence to the various affiliated units of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, Inc.

SECTION 4. TREASURER

The Treasurer shall be elected for a two-year (2) term and may succeed himself or herself in office. Election of the Treasurer shall take place on those years ending in an odd number.

The Treasurer or their designee shall receive and deposit all monies collected for the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, Incorporated.

The Treasurer shall prepare a recommended yearly budget. This recommended budget should be presented to the Board of Directors for approval at the first meeting in each fiscal year.

The Treasurer shall prepare a yearly financial statement based on an internal audit as directed by the Board of Directors. The report shall be presented at a meeting designated by the President.

The Treasurer shall direct all payees to make checks payable to the Illinois Junior Academy of Science, Incorporated.

The President, within the limitations of Article I., Section 1. of the Rules of Procedure, shall give authorization for disbursement of funds.

SECTION 5. MEMBERS AT LARGE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The four members of the Board of Directors who are elected as a Member At Large shall serve a term of four years, with the term of one member at large ending each year. Board Members at Large should assume some leadership responsibilities such as official positions or committee chairs during their tenure in office.

SECTION 6. REGION CHAIRPERSONS

All region Chairpersons have the responsibility of overseeing operations of their region. All region Chairpersons shall attend corporate officers meetings.

Two Region Chairpersons, or their representatives, shall serve for one year on the Board of Directors. The sequence shall be the numerical arrangement of the regions. If a Region Chairperson, or a representative, does not elect to serve then the position shall go to the next Region Chairperson who qualifies for the position.

SECTION 7. IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

The Immediate Past-President shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and has the responsibility for setting up an Information Booth at the state exposition.

The Immediate Past-President shall answer questions, provide information and should be versed in the operation of the science exposition.
